

We are seeking a detail-oriented and proactive Lab Technician to support our bridge construction projects across India. The ideal candidate will assist in primarily tests construction materials like soil, cement, concrete, and bitumen to ensure quality and adherence to standards.

Key Responsibilities:

- Provide day-to-day technical support in coordination with design and site teams.
- Ensure proper version control and archiving of all design-related documents.
- Collecting and preparing samples for testing, ensuring proper storage and handling.
- Maintaining and calibrating laboratory equipment to ensure accurate results.
- Accurately recording and documenting test results for future reference.

Requirements:

- Diploma or Graduate in any stream.
- Knowledge of construction materials testing procedures, equipment operation, and data analysis.
- Accuracy and meticulousness in recording data and performing tests.

Experience:

0–1 year of experience in Performing tests on construction materials like soil, aggregates, concrete, and asphalt. preferably in infrastructure or bridge construction projects.